U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The probation office submitted three prior non-compliance reports related to Mr. Sanchez's substance use, specifically marijuana and cocaine. No formal action was taken by Your Honor.

On November 7, 2022, Mr. Sanchez was admitted to short-term residential treatment. He successfully completed inpatient treatment on December 5, 2022, and re-enrolled in intensive outpatient treatment at C-Line Community Outreach in Jersey City, New Jersey. As noted above, he tested positive for marijuana and adamantly denied use. Mr. Sanchez submitted six (6) subsequent urinalysis tests since January 26, 2023, and the results were negative. Mr. Sanchez's counselor provided a favorable update on his progress and compliance in treatment. Mr. Sanchez's level of treatment was recently decreased to outpatient. He participates in two telehealth groups weekly and one individual in-person session with drug testing weekly. He is scheduled to complete treatment in April 2023.

Jose Sanchez

Mr. Sanchez recently secured employment at Burlington Coat Factory in Edgewater, New Jersey and is employed part-time. He seems focused and committed to his sobriety and maintaining stable employment. He completed a mental health assessment at C-Line Community Outreach, and no treatment was recommended.

We will continue to monitor his progress in treatment and will report any additional instances of noncompliance. At this time, we respectfully request no formal court action.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
